OUT ON THE LIMB
with George Vierhus

NOW THAT THE HECTIC mailing rush at the Campbell post office has dwindled to a mere trickle, it is nice to know that the local postal crew has again scored high in service offered its patrons during the trying times at the peak of the annual mob scenes.

The post office department has been subjected to much criticism over the years. Charges have been made that the department uses antiquated methods in the distribution of the mail and is inefficient all the way through.

While there may be some merit in the criticisms and perhaps the efficiency can be improved, if more modern methods were installed, the fact remains that, on the whole, postal employees are hard working individuals who are trying conscientiously to serve the public to the best of their ability.

At least that is our experience in Campbell which is really the only post office in the entire country with which we are familiar.

The Campbell office, of course, may be an exception.

As a matter of fact, we know of several people who live in other communities who traveled the extra miles to do their Christmas "business" at the local office.

They claimed that the service was better here. The personnel was more courteous and the system was more efficient in general.

We don't know about that.

After all, there just can't be too many different ways to handle the mad mail rush. It must be about the same in every office.

Anyway, we thought that Dick Adams and his crew might like to know that they brought in some "extra business" because of the efficient way they operated the local mail emporium.

But if they get any more of this "extra" business, we don't know where they would put it.

A FATHER AND SON act at a recent Planning Commission meeting made quite a hit with the audience plus getting their point across with the commissioners.

Ira Kirkorian, developer of Kirkwood Plaza and who is in the process of expanding it with a modern auto care center, had requested that the original plans for the building be modified.

The original plans called for a complete slump stone wall which Ira maintained would not be as attractive as part slump stone and he asked that the Commission approve the modification.

He explained that he had been away when the original plans were approved and that his son, Kent, a drafting engineer, had presented the case.

His son, Ira said, because of his inexperience had not realized that the original design was not right.

That is, until his dad came back to town.

He knows now, Ira added, as an afterthought.

Kent, who was also present, in a somewhat abashed manner supplemented his dad's presentation.

The Commissioners, recognizing that Kirkorian had done an outstanding job in the development of Kirkwood Plaza so far and would not build anything that would detract from it, approved the modification as requested.

The good-natured public reprimand by a father of his son apparently didn't strain their relationship at all.

They left the meeting together.

And both appeared pleased.

AT THAT SAME PLANning Commission meeting, the Commissioners became a little involved over a request by Mr. and Mrs. George Fritz for a dog kennel at 811 Camden

AND A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU---The lighted decorated homes of Campbell are a beautiful sight in the early dark hours of the night. One of the decorated homes at 982 Steinway is a Christmas Card to the entire community, and the owners, Mr. and Mrs. William Suratt, invite everyone to drive by and enjoy their efforts. The decorations are all handmade by Bill and his three sons from the three dimensional Santa's sleigh and reindeer on the roof to the lighted Christmas tree with carols coming from home. Suratt starts working on the decorations approximately three months ahead of time, and every year adds to the scene. Above are two pictures of the home showing their front yard and the garage door.

Woman loses life at intersection

The first traffic fatality in the Campbell area for several years occurred Thursday evening when Frances June Terry, 26, 3219 Williamsburg Dr., Apt. 4, was killed as she attempted to cross the San Tomas Expressway near Budd Ave. at 6:30 p.m. on foot.

Mrs. Terry had been attempting to cross the expressway after the car in which she was a passenger ran out of gas and was parked on the median strip.

She was hit by a car driven by James Lewis, 26 Virginia Ave., when she apparently ran in front of his car.

Although Lewis apparently swerved in an attempt to avoid hitting her, she was struck, falling into the pathway of a second car driven by Mrs. Anna Marie Phillips, 1370 Lexington Dr.

Mrs. Terry was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident.

RAINDROPS

Stormy weather in Campbell for the last four days deposited a total of 1.27 inches of rain, bringing the total rainfall to date to 3.40 inches

Last year at the same time 4.19 inches had been recorded by the Campbell Water Company with normal rainfall at 5.25 inches. A new storm was moving in and rain should be falling for the next few days.

The Rev. Leonard W. Bose, pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church in Campbell, presents the 1969 Christmas message in this issue, following the tradition established more than 10 years ago by this newspaper.

This is the first Christmas season for Father Bose in Campbell. He was assigned as pastor here on Nov. 23 succeeding Father John Lally who was assigned to San Mateo after serving as pastor of St. Lucy's for 10 years.

Father Bose, a native of San Francisco, came to Campbell from Mountain View where he established St. Athanasius parish in that community and served as its pastor for 10 years.

Father Bose was ordained March 20, 1943 and had served churches in Burlingame, San Francisco and Vacaville before going to Mountain View. His father, William A. Bose, also a native of San Francisco, still resides in that city. Father Bose has a brother, Paul E. Bose, of Fresno, and a sister, Mrs. M. William (Bertha) Chilcote, of Fremont.

Father Bose is only the third pastor St. Lucy's has had since it became a full-fledged parish in 1947. The late Father Denis Kennelly, after whom the parish hall is named, was the first pastor and was succeeded by Father Lally.

Christmas message

BY REV. LEONARD W. BOSE
ST. LUCY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH
CAMPBELL

Once again the joyous season of Christmas is upon us. Signs of this beautiful season surround us inside and outside our homes.

The multi-colored lights, the Christmas trees, the crib scenes, the melodies that fill the air remind us of this unique time of the year.

Suddenly the whole atmosphere seems transformed.

For some it may be no more than some sort of mid-Winter festival, a pause after the work of Autumn, a time to enjoy the intimacy of family and friends. For the believer it is this, but for him it is also much more.

It is a time when he recalls the birth of the God-man in the humble stable of Bethlehem; it is a time when he renews his faith in the great realities which God has unfolded to him.

Christmas, historically, was the fulfillment of the message of the prophets to the People of God.

God, who formerly had spoken through His prophets, now sends His only-begotten Son to dwell among the sons of man.

God wishes to bring about the most intimate bond between Himself and His People, so that they would really be His People.

Christmas, today, is still the fulfillment of that promise--that God dwell among His People. It is a strange anomaly that after almost two thousand years that promise still remains as a hope for man.

One of the great messages of Christmas was heralded by the angels, "Peace on earth to men of good will"... peace with one's God, peace with one's fellow-man.

One would think that after so many years, the message of peace would have been heard and accepted by everyone.

But, as we celebrate once more the Birth of the Prince of Peace, we realize that in many quarters of the world, alas, even within the borders of our own beloved land, the word 'peace' is only a hollow, empty sound.

The formula that the Prince of Peace brought with Him is such a simple one: peace + men + good will.

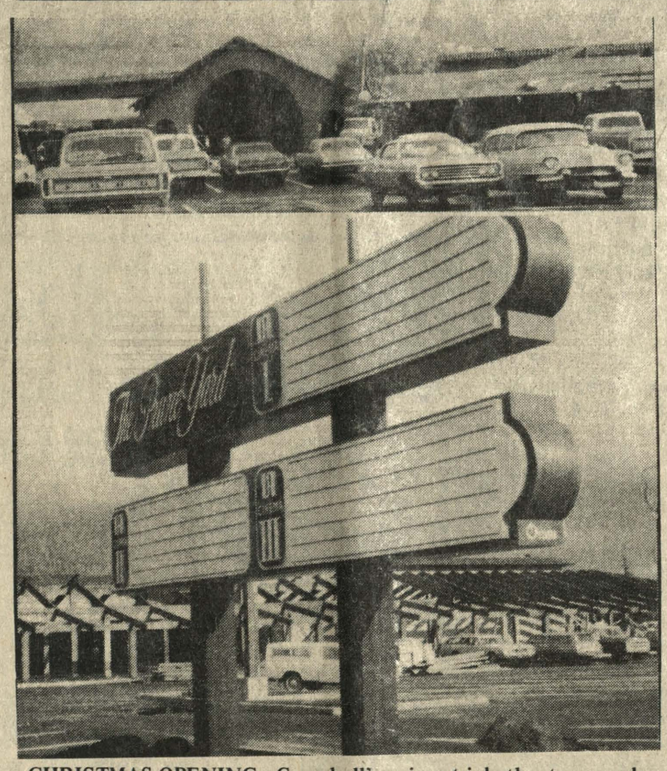
This Infant-Savior of Bethlehem has shown us what this means: He became man and revealed God's good will to men. He gave Himself totally to and for us.

A Savior is born to you.

If it is peace we seek, then we must look for it where only it can be found, beside Him Who emptied Himself for our sakes, Who accepted our weaknesses and miseries that we might know tranquility and peace.

The shepherds found peace in the stable. Man will find it nowhere else.

And then he will have a truly happy and blessed Christmas, for he has found the one from whom the peace of the world has its beginning and its end.



CHRISTMAS OPENING---Campbell's unique triple-theater complex in The PruneYard at Bascom and Campbell avenues is scheduled to open at 1 p.m. on Christmas Day. Movies have been booked for all three.

In "U-A Cinema I", with 816 loge seats, "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice" will be shown. At the 480-seat "U-A Cinema II", "The Arrangement" is booked and in the 279-seat "U-A Cinema III", the picture will be "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid".

Workmen have been on the job day and night during the past few weeks putting the finishing touches on the triple-theater complex, the first of its kind in the area.

Campbell High School loses $3500 in photo equipment to burglars

Camera and woodshop equipment valued at $3,500 was expertly removed from Campbell High late Friday night, with the burglars completely cleaning out both departments, even to the film used in the cameras.

Pins were removed from the door to the shop, apparently during the last period when all of the students attended assembly in the auditorium, and then replaced them to appear as though they were still functioning.

Police report that entry was made through a window by one of the burglars who then, apparently, let in others to completely strip the two shop areas of all but the enlarger.

Evidence points to more than one person being involved in the theft, because all locks in the woodshop had been removed, but the locks in the photo lab were cut with cutters. Gloves were apparently used, as no fingerprints were found.

In another burglary reported last week, thieves removed four Dayton Knock-off cross-laced wire wheels from a car belonging to Edgar Longnecker, 1462 Abbott.

Longnecker believes they are the only wheels of that type in the county.

San Anselmo police are now holding Donald Ernest Stewart as a possible suspect in the recent hold-ups of the Darton Chevron and Vern Fallows service stations on Winchester Blvd.

EARLY ISSUE

The Campbell Press will again be delivered one day early next week, coming out on Tuesday instead of Wednesday.

The office of The Press will be closed next Wednesday and on Thursday, New Year's Day.

The Press will also be closed tomorrow and Thursday (Christmas).

The staff urges both advertisers and correspondents to cooperate with us on the early deadline. The office will be open Saturday, Dec. 27.

The Press will be back on its regular schedule for the Jan. 7, 1970 issue, the first of the new year.

Season's Greetings.

Happy Christmas

Two 14-year-old boys Greg Woodward, 1350 Lexington Dr. and Jeff Brown, 1357 Eden Ave. were walking along by the First United Methodist Church Saturday, when they spied a wallet lying in the gutter.

Being normal, curious boys, they picked it up, and found it contained $9.

Although this is Christmas time, and $9 could have meant a lot to the two boys, they proved that many young people are still honest, and promptly took the wallet and the money down to the Campbell Police station.

Subsequently, the wallet's owner, Elsie Gloria San Miguel of 608 Harrison Ave., was reunited with her wallet with the money intact.

HAPPY CHRISTMAS

One Solitary Life

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in still another village, where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a house. He didn't go to college. He never visited a big city.

He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away.

He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that One Solitary Life.

PRUNEYARD NO!

Gentlemen:

The reference in last week's Campbell Press to the progress being made on the city's biggest and most prominent building, made it appear that the owners still intend to give this interesting complex the appalling name of the "PRUNEYARD".

It does seem a pity that the Scottish connotations of the "CAMPBELL" are not being developed. For example, GLENCOE and GLENLYON were closely associated with the Campbells, and the head of the clan is the DUKE of ARGYLL, so why not the ARGYLL, GLENLYON, or, GLENCOE TOWERS and Shopping Center...or possibly, the Argyll Shopping Center, the Glenlyon Towers, and the Glencoe Theaters?

If the urge to remind Campbell residents of the vanished orchards is so strong that the word "PRUNE" is mandatory, how about PRUNEGLEN? After all, a "yard" is an enclosed space devoted to such industries as brickmaking, ship building, or a place for keeping coal or small farm animals. It is even used sometimes to describe an open space around a house, when that space is too unkempt to be called a "garden"!

Surely the owners of this complex must appreciate that "yard" is the wrong word. Even now, despite the inevitable confusion and untidiness of the construction process, it doesn't look like a JUNKYARD.

Yours truly,
Harald Sanders Green

FAMILY LIFE

Editor:

The first sign of winter was provided by the 1969 County Grand Jury in a snow job attempt to blanket the proposed Family Life Education program with a lilly white cover.

I question their use of precious time away from their purpose which Webster's Dictionary defines as: "A jury that examines accusations against persons charged with crime, and finds bills of indictment, if the evidence warrants." With the amount of crime in our streets the County Grand Jury has undertaken to indict the implication, every family who objects to FLE.

Ave. in an industrial area.

The question arose during the discussion of whether dog kennels should be allowed in town at all.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina cut off that discussion when he explained that kennels were allowed under the city code and only the use permit was before the body. He also could have added that there are at least five other kennels in town at the present time.

The interesting part of the discussion, in our opinion, was the number of dogs that were involved. The applicants had suggested that the place could handle 50 dogs or more. But that the County Health Department would have to authorize the number.

The Planners, however, in approving the kennel specified that only 25 dogs would be allowed. One of the commissioners then wanted to know whether this would cut down the number of parking spaces that would be required and was there an ordinance that specified how many parking spaces per dog. (There isn't.)

The question of how far a bark can be heard, involving the decibles for the measurement of sound, was also discussed.

Mrs. Fritz implied that she did not expect her dogs would annoy people by their barking...It was mainly a matter of proper care, she explained. Dogs bark when they are annoyed.

We got the impression from her that a happy dog doesn't bark.

But maybe we had better let sleeping dogs lie.

RUMORS WERE FLOATing around for a while that John Morgan, Campbell's popular police chief, might be a candidate for the assembly seat now held by John Vasconcellos.

Morgan received evidence of support from many quarters, for he has built up such an enviable reputation in this community that it has spread into other areas.

That John would make an excellent assemblyman there is no doubt.

But we sincerely (and selfishly) believe he will be of more value to more people as our police chief.

John now has officially scotched the rumors. He says he will not be a candidate for the assembly.

John should feel both honored and complimented by the support for his "candidacy" that was generated just by the rumor alone.

It clearly showed that he has developed the respect and esteem of his fellow citizens.

Understated we mean that police today seem to have more need of the virtues that are exemplified by John Morgan than do assemblymen.

Or to put it another way:

Campbell is the winner by John's decision not to run for the assembly.

SINCE IT WAS SUGgested in this column that Bill Podgorsek would make a good councilman, we have been subjected to good-natured needling from a few people who indicated we were sort of jumping the gun.

You may recall that when Homer Hyde made it known that he would not seek reelection, we submitted that there were a number of outstanding citizens who would make good candidates. Bill "Pod" was among 'em.

We were shaking the bushes, so to speak.

Bill Podgorsek has indicated his interest in running for the Council and, in our opinion, he has the qualifications for the office. His deep interest in his community has already been proven by his stellar work on the Parks and Recreation Commission and his leadership in the civic bond campaign.

Obviously there are many others who would make good councilmen. But to the best of our knowledge none have indicated their interest in running, and Bill has.

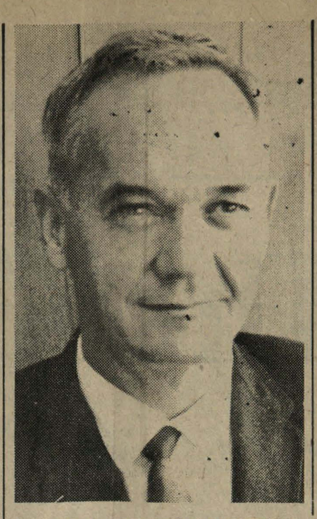
One of our "needlers" was Jack Healey, a long-time planning commissioner and who, incidentally, would make a good councilman himself, in our opinion.

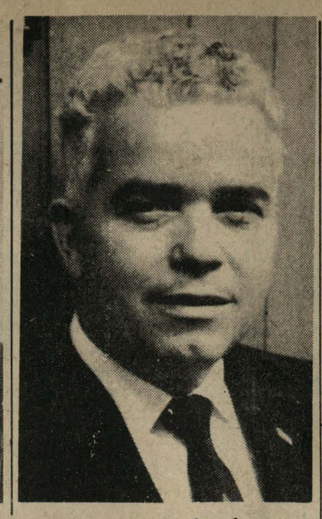
Jack indicated he had a candidate in mind but hadn't talked to him about it yet, so - - -

We make no bones about our interest in this community. We know it shows.

And we think it is imperative that the best people available take part in our city government and serve on the council and commissions.

Next question.





HEAD PARK COMMISSION---Don Hebard (left) has been re-elected chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission to serve as head of that body in 1970. Bill Podgorsek (left) has been elected vice-chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission for the next year.

HEAD COMMISSION IN '70---Merrill Grim (left), who served as vice-chairman of the Planning Commission in 1969, is scheduled to become chairman in 1970. Dale Scott (right), has been nominated for vice-chairman. The officers will be elected at the first meeting of the new year on January 5.

College board approves bid for building on Saratoga campus

Construction on the language arts-social science building at the Saratoga campus of West Valley College will commence immediately, following approval of the award of bid by the governing board for the project Thursday night.

Trustees awarded the construction contract to Horne-Zwick Construction Co. of Salt Lake City, Utah, at a total cost of $1,601,100. At their meeting Nov. 20, trustees had indicated their intent to award the bid subject to approval of the project by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The federal government granted approval and will contribute $500,000 toward the total cost of the project.

Other discussion about the Saratoga campus at the meeting came when John Lyon Reid, district architect, presented a suggested over-all landscaping plan for the central core of the campus as a part of the master plan for site development of the campus. The plan envisioned the inclusion of an amphitheater. Trustees took the proposal under consideration.

In other action Thursday night, the board:

Adopted an addition to the existing board policy establishing procedures by which an instructor may drop a student from class on his own initiative for other than academic reasons, and providing the means for student appeal from such actions by an instructor.

Approved a recommendation that it meet only on the third Thursday in January, as the first Thursday of the month, New Year's Day, is a legal holiday.

Adopted a resolution stipulating agreement with San Jose Junior College District concerning the joint use of facilities by students in each district only when some buildings are constructed on the Evergreen site in the San Jose district and the Mission College campus in the West Valley district.

Reappointed Ed Kolstad, Saratoga; Morris Loughran, Saratoga; Emmette Gatewood Jr., Los Gatos; Holland Vollenweider, Campbell; to the college's Real Estate Education Advisory Committee for the three-year term, ending Dec. 31, 1972, and appointed John B. Roberts, Los Gatos, to fill the unexpired term of Robert Moore on that group. Robert L. King was also appointed to the committee for a three-year term in place of Shelly Williams who was not available for reappointment.

Approved payment of financial claims in the amount of $120,019.13.

Awarded bid for classroom and office furniture to eight furniture companies in the total amount of $21,957.56.

Awarded a bid to IBM Company for typewriters on a three-year lease purchase basis in the amount of $22,312.50.

Made the following appointments: Mrs. Marlene Yearwood, secretary in the business services office (action taken at Dec. 4 meeting); Mrs. Betty Bradler as secretary to the administrative assistant to the dean of instruction and dean of extended day and summer session; and extended the appointment of Mrs. Rena Batiste as temporary library clerk until June 30, 1970.

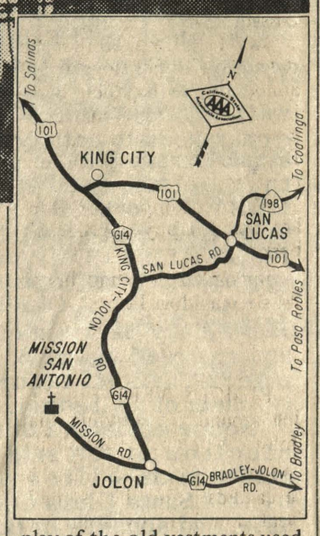
Visiting missions provides pleasant experience

Visiting California's old missions is a pleasant experience any time–but it's especially so when special events are held. These are the times when merry music echoes through the dark esplanades, when ancient ovens are fired up to feed a crowd, when dancing feet clickety-clack on worn old stones.

Sometimes the emphasis is on fun, as it is at the Annual Fiesta Celebration set for June 8 at Mission San Antonio near Jolon, says the California State Automobile Association.

Mission San Antonio was the third mission in the California chain to be founded (1771) and is located off the beaten path in the midst of the Hunter Ligget military reservation. It is the easiest of all the missions to visualize how it must have been some 200 years ago when the Franciscan Padres and the Salinan Indians worked side by side in the Valley of the Oaks.

Almost completely restored in 1949 after almost a century of abandonment because of secularization, the mission spreads out in grand style and the traveler coming upon it senses the spaciousness that characterized all the missions in their heyday.



In its prime, the mission was the home of 1,300 Indians, who worked at a score of handicrafts, produced bountiful crops and herded some 17,000 livestock. Today, the brown-robed Franciscan padres pad quietly along the tiled floors and the mission still serves as a training center for young men aspiring to the Franciscan Brotherhood.

After you've had your fill of steaks, beans, salsa, garlic bread and coffee and enjoyed the flamenco dancers, the band concerts and the other festivities, take time to walk around to see the many restored and original workings of the mission.

The big tree that stands outside the church is the original olive tree planted by padres in about 1836.

The two wooden figureheads from a colonial frigate were, according to legend, brought to the mission by sailors as an offering of thanks after a stormy and perilous voyage.

Working models in the mission museum show how the grain was ground, olives crushed for making oil and the fields irrigated. A colorful display of the old vestments used by the padres in religious ceremonies is also on display along with many other artifacts.

The blacksmith shop with its forge of adobe bricks and the old mission kitchen with its authentic utensils can be seen much as they were in the days of the padres. Part of the once extensive aqueduct system has been uncovered as has the original stone floor for the threshing compound.

Unique among mission interiors is the church at Mission San Antonio with its slanting beamed ceiling structure which has a light blue cast to it. Unusual too, is the pulpit which can be reached only by stepping outside the building and going up a staircase.

Whether you go on fiesta day or any day, you'll enjoy the peaceful setting of Mission San Antonio in the scenic Valley of the Oaks.

Dec. 31 deadline for Medicare reimbursement

Dec. 31, 1969 is an important deadline for everyone who has not claimed reimbursement for late 1967 and 1968 medical bills under Medicare, according to Lee R. Christensen, Acting District Manager of the Social Security Administration.

This is the last date for filing claims for payment of doctor bills, or other covered services, incurred in the period between Oct. 1, 1967 and Sept. 30, 1968. Medicare beneficiaries should check carefully to make sure these previous years' bills are submitted for payment before the end of this year. However, the deadline for filing for reimbursement for late 1968 and 1969 medical bills does not occur until Dec. 31, 1970.

A claim can consist of a combination of itemized bills from different doctors, or for any services or supplies covered under Supplementary Medical Insurance. Bills must be itemized but it is not necessary that they be paid before filing the claim.

To assist people under Medicare with their record-keeping, the Social Security Office has a supply of folders that can be used to keep track of medical bills until claims are submitted and payment received. Phone the Social Security Office at 286-2525.

Claimants should be sure to answer all questions in Part I of the Request for Medicare Payment form and to sign it. If the doctor did not complete Part II of the form, claimants should be sure that all the bills attached show the claimant's name and health insurance claim number exactly as shown on his health insurance card.

The Social Security Office, located at 500 S. First St., San Jose, will be glad to assist anyone who needs help in filing his claim before the Dec. 31, 1969 deadline for late 1967 and 1968 bills.

A pleasant association

The difference among S & L's is the service they offer. Everything else is much the same. Colonial has a heritage of service. Our name is a reminder of the days when there were town halls and villages... and you did business with people you knew and trusted. All Colonial offices are dedicated to their communities. Most have been a part of their towns and neighborhoods for many years so the people they serve are friends, not customers...and never numbers. Colonial, you see, believes that there is at least one thing more important than the fact it pays the highest interest on insured savings paid day-in to day-out. And that's upholding its reputation for being a pleasant association.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Al Salciccia

Here's a football puzzler for you... Twice, the annual Rose Bowl was won by a team that was NOT a college team... Can you explain?... Most football fans don't know that for the 1918 and 1919 Rose Bowls, service teams instead of college teams played, and thus, the 1918 game was won by the Mare Island Marines and the 1919 game by Great Lakes Navy.

Did you know the final score of a football game could be 1-0?... Wow is this possible?... 1-0 is the official score for a forfeit

When it comes to hunting and fishing, which of those two sports do you think has the larger fallowing?... Are ther more hunters in America, or more fishermen?... Answer is: fishermen... According to government figures, there are about 20-million fishermen in the U.S. and about 14-million hunters.

Brannon home carries out dual decorating theme

CO-CHAIRMEN---Mrs. Edmund Birr and Mrs. B.A. Bingham rest for a moment beside the novel Christmas fruit tree in the Ward Brannon home. Miniature apples, lemons, bananas, limes, pears, plums, grapes and cherries as well as pine cones were used to decorate the tree which carried out the "Fruits of the Valley" co-theme of the open house held by the California District Garden Club last week. The ladies are holding two of the lovely silver pheasants that graced the coffee table by the tree.

"The Twelve Days of Christmas" combined with "Fruits of the Valley", was the theme of the California District Garden Club open house held in the lovely Andrea Court home of Mrs. Ward Brannon, Thursday, Dec. 18.

The Advent theme was carried out throughout the home from the purple yarn used as ties for the novel "Christmas Fruit" tree decorating the spacious living room to the "Partridge in a Pear Tree" in the recreation room.

A preview of the home decorations greeted the guests at the door with the Christmas spray combined with miniature fruits.

The fund raising home tour attracted over 50 guests to the Brannan home, with three other homes being decorated in other parts of the West Valley. Following the tour the guests were each presented with packets of dry bay leaves tied with the purple yarn, and served delicious Noviate wine (which carried out the fruits of the valley theme) and freshly baked cookies, fruit cake and other assorted Christmas goodies.

THE ADVENT THEME---was accented by the Advent Wreath on the dining room table with the gilded fruits of the valley circling the three lighted candles while Mrs. Ward Brannon points out the unlit taper awaiting the Christ child's birth. In the background was a large mirror sprayed with gold and framed in greenery.

ONE OF THE GUESTS---who toured the Ward Brannon home during the open house was Mrs. Raynor Prince, an honorary member of the Campbell Garden Club who has been closely associated with the club almost since its beginning. Mrs. Prince, whose family has lived in the West Valley area since 1950, stands by the uniquely decorated "Fruit Christmas Tree" in the Ward Brannon home during the California District Garden Club tour.

A REAL PEAR TREE---well, almost anyway. Mrs. Rose Magnasco served as hostess at the open house held last week as part of the California District Garden club fund raising project. Mrs. Magnasco decorated the clever pear tree which featured the "partridges" in the pear tree carrying the Advent picture throughout the Ward Brannon home.

Santa visits Campbell Head Start children

Santa came to the children at the Campbell Head Start program Friday morning. Through the generosity of several civic organizations, Cub Scouts and individuals, the 20 children of the school which is based in the St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, 65 W. Rincon Ave., and their younger brothers and sisters, enjoyed a bountiful Christmas, which included toys, gifts and individually fitted clothing besides.

Contributions were received from Cub Scout Den 3 of Pack 202, Campbell Lions Club, Campbell Police wives, West Valley Kiwanis and the Los Gatos Congregational Church. In addition to furnishing a large Christmas tree for the Head Start center, the West Valley Kiwanians also purchased clothing and shoes for the tots which were chosen for each child and personally fitted.

A trip to Santa's Village was also enjoyed by the youngsters

THE PRUNEYARD GETS OLIVE TREES---On Saturday, the first of 200 ornamental olive trees that will be planted throughout the PruneYard center at Bascom and Campbell avenues were planted. The first tree was placed at the entrance to the unique triple theater complex that is slated to open on Christmas Day at 1 p.m.

The above photos depict the arrival of the truck with the first group of trees and the subsequent unloading and "planting" of the first tree.

The trees are approximately 24-feet high and will be in keeping with the early California style of architectural design that will be carried out throughout the entire center which will be dominated by the 18-story office building, "The Towers".

The heart of the PruneYard complex will be the "Gran Plaza", an expanse of landscaped open space and fountains, reminiscent of the typical Spanish-American village of old. Construction has already started on commercial buildings adjacent to the three theaters.

Plans have also been announced for a Bank of America branch that will be "free standing" near the corner of Bascom and Campbell avenues.

The theaters that are scheduled to open Christmas Day will be the first unit of the multi-million dollar complex to be occupied. Present plans call for occupancy of "The Towers" to begin shortly after the start of the new year.

CHP asks not to be involved in your Christmas festivities

"We don't want to get involved in your Christmas festivities," Captain R. P. Bliss of the California Highway Patrol said this week in a holiday greeting.

"Christmas is a time of joy and brotherhood, and if we become a part of your celebration it will probably mean you have had an accident or were arrested for drunk driving. We want neither to happen."

Captain Bliss offered several suggestions for assuring a safe Christmas season:

1. Be generous on the highway. Don't try to crowd out a driver who wants to move into your lane. Don't "push" slower drivers by following too close, and don't be "Scroogish" by driving too slow for prevailing traffic.

2. Keep a clear head so you'll be ready for emergencies. Don't drive if drink has left you too happy to believe that you have to drive carefully.

3. The driver's seat is no place for a sleepy head. Don't drive if you're over-tired.

4. Allow enough time to get where you're going safely, or you may not get there at all.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

This column is written for release on a day which is sacred to much of the world's population and a time of joy and happiness to Americans of all religious beliefs. It is a day steeped in centuries-old tradition which relates to a belief in the birth of a saviour whose name forms the first letters of Christianity and Christmas.

On this Christmas Day, the traditional nativity scene which has been featured in the famous Christmas pageant on the Ellipse before the White House in Washington, D.C., is present as it has been for the past fifteen years–thanks to the United States Court of Appeals.

In a Dec. 12 decision the Court approved the life-sized manger scene depicting the birth of Christ for this year at least. It denied a petition filed by the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of three clergymen, an atheist and others to prevent construction of the traditional scene. These litigants had previously filed a suit claiming that government sponsorship of a Christian symbol amounts to an unconstitutional establishment of religion.

ACLU attorney Warren Kaplan said at the hearing he had no objection to the reindeer, yule logs and evergreen trees in the pageant because they have no religious significance. But the nativity scene, he said, is clearly intended to be a symbol with religious meaning.

Today's massive effort to completely separate government from anything religious began with the Supreme Court decision outlawing prayer in our public schools. It gained momentum during the successful drive by some clergymen, liberals and civil libertarians to kill legislation offered by the late Senator Dirksen to overturn the Court's decision. Now it levels criticism at our astronauts when they utter a prayer in outerspace.

Personally, I believe the time has come to draw a fine line which represents a happy medium between the traditions, ideals, beliefs and feelings of a vast majority of Americans and the sometimes militant, selfish and unreasonable demands of a small minority. We of the majority should have the right for our tax money to be spent for something which we respect and admire provided those whom it offends are not obligated to look at it. After all the Grand Canyon has been seen by only a minority of Americans, yet all of us have contributed to developing it as a National Park.

If this extreme movement by unreasonable minorities is allowed to continue it will only be a matter of time until "In God We Trust" is removed from our national emblems and coins, and the word "God" is removed from our official Pledge of Allegiance. Will we so neuterize our national morality that government offices will remain open on Sunday and Seventh Day Adventist federal employees will be required to work on Saturdays? Will it be wrong to to give government workers the day off on Christmas or three hours on Good Friday so they can attend church? Must Congress cease its tradional gesture of respect to the Jewish faith by resuming the scheduling of legislation on Yom Kippur and other religuous holidays? I hope not

I'll conclude with a personal, non-official statement. I wish you all a joyous and happy Christmas. May God bless you and bring us Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men.

GIFT FROM ROBO—W. G. Francis, president of the Robo Car Wash chain, turns over the "ribbon", consisting of 20 $5 bills which was used in the grand opening of the latest of the businesses at the corner of Kennedy and Winchester avenues early Monday morning. Accepting the money on behalf of the Campbell Youth Employment Service committee was Nick Roden, vice-chairman of the YES committee.

New Robo Car Wash business opens with $100 donation

One of the latest of businesses to open in Campbell was the Robo Car Wash, corner of Kennedy and Winchester Ave. The new facility is one of a chain of car wash and service station businesses being opened up in the area, with the Campbell business being the first one of five in the area, according to W. G. Francis, president.

One million cars a week are being washed by the Robo washers, and Francis emphasized that the wash is free to anyone who gets a fill-up with gas, no minimum being necessary, or 75 cents without the gasoline fill-up. Only Union products are being sold in any Robo station.

The Robo company believes in becoming a part of the community in which they are engaged in business, offering their facilities for fund-raising programs for various youth groups and other worthwhile drives.

Their willingness to help was expressed during their grand opening ceremony, when, instead of the usual ribbon being cut, the "ribbon" was composed of 20 $5 bills. This money was then turned over to the Campbell Youth Employment Service to be used in working with the Campbell Chamber of Commerce committee in finding summer jobs for the young people of the community.

Francis stated that the Robo car wash does not use mechanical equipment of any kind in getting a car sparkling clean, with the cleansing action being effected by jets of water under 600 lbs. pressure. The driver stays in the car during the wash which only takes a few minutes, and is able to drive away in a sparkling clean vehicle. The new car wash will also handle the van type trucks, as well as regular-sized cars.

Christmas Eve services planned for local churches

METHODIST CHURCH

Two services will be held at the First United Methodist Church this year with the intent to recapture the spirit of "The Night Before Christmas" almost two thousand years ago.

The early service, 7:30 p.m., is primarily for children and will feature special music by the Treble, Boys', Cherub and Chapel Choirs, lifting from scripture the emphasis of God's love, the people will respond to two themes, "I Like Christmas" and "Christmas is the Time". Child care is provided for this service.

The late, 11 p.m., service is for all ages and will emphasize the same themes, but portrayed in a different way. The special music will be provided by the Youth and Sanctuary Choirs. A unique Candlelighting service concludes this experience.

A brass quartet will bring the Prelude. The members are: First Trumpet, Jeff Vore; Second Trumpet, Paul Skinner; Third Trumpet, Phil Young; Trombone, Carl Kaiser.

A special Christmas Communion service is planned for Christmas evening from 5 to 9 p.m. Families are asked to come to the sanctuary, sit in meditation and commune when ready. All are welcome at our services and for everyone this service can be "The End Of A Perfect Day".

SARATOGA BAPTIST

Rev. Harry L. Twining, Jr., pastor of the Saratoga Avenue Baptist Church, announces that there will be Christmas Candlelight Services this year. One service will be Christmas Eve at 8 p.m. and the other on Christmas night at the same hour.

The program is one hour long and concludes with the congregation marching from the auditorium singing Christmas carols and each carrying their own lighted candle. A nursery is provided at all services.

PRESBYTERIAN

Immanuel United Presbyterian Church, 3705 Payne Ave., San Jose, will have an 11 p.m. service on Christmas Eve at the church. There will be music furnished by the choir, carol singing by the congregation, Christmas readings, and a message from the pastor, Foster Shannon. All are welcome to this special service.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF CAMPBELL

Christmas Eve services will be held at the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave., at 7 and 11 p.m. The special candlelighting services will have the theme, "Christmas On the Moon." Child care will be provided at the 7 p.m. services.

ST. LUCY'S CATHOLIC

Confessions will be held Wednesday, Dec. 24 from 3 to 5:30 p.m. A special Concelebrated midnight mass will be held on Christmas Eve at midnight with masses scheduled for Christmas Day at 7, 8:30, 9:45 and 11 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

Christmas means giving

Mrs. Lyman Harris, a member of Immanuel United Presbyterian Church of San Jose, has spent many hours of work in Christian service by making decorative baskets from Christmas cards and delivering them to patients in convalescent hospitals.

Each basket takes about two hours of work from start to finish. This year Mrs. Harris has made 70 baskets and last year she made some 40 baskets and distributed them to those less fortunate. She also spends time visiting with these patients.

Other members of Immanuel Church have been giving several hours a week in visiting convalescent hospitals and bringing a little sunshine and pleasure to these shut-ins.

L. G. Candlelight peace march

Campbell citizens interested in joining a candlelight peace march on Christmas Eve are invited to join the West Valley Peace Center march in Los Gatos.

The procession will start at 6:30 p.m. on Church St. in Los Gatos across from the Los Gatos City offices. The parade, through downtown Los Gatos, is expected to end at 8:30 p.m. Participants are asked to bring their own candles.

St. Francis K of C sets Feb. 7 as Casino Night

The St. Francis Chapter, Knights of Columbus which is composed of 28 Knights of Columbus Councils in the Archdiocese of San Francisco announces that it will hold a Casino Night at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 217 Baldwin Ave., San Mateo, Feb. 7.

The occasion will be an evening of enjoyment for every Knight of Columbus and his family as well as his friends. A hot buffet dinner will be composed of a wide variety of different dishes and will be served at 11 p.m.

The proceeds will be for the benefit of the St. Francis Chapter Confreternity of Christian Doctrine Burse, and the tickets can be secured from Irwin F. Pasternak, of Bishop O'Dowd Council Knights of Columbus Los Gatos at 243 Beverly Ct., Campbell.

ATTEND OUR Christmas Eve SERVICES

Christmas traditions in other lands

Although Christmas in Santa Clara Valley and Campbell is celebrated with the "American" traditional Christmas tree, Santa Claus, carol singing and church services, Christmas in other lands and other places is observed in different ways.

In Holland on Christmas Eve the young men gather at midnight in the principal square. One member is chosen as "star bearer", and holds aloft a large, star-shaped lantern, lighted with many candles and mounted on a pole, signifying the Star of Bethlehem.

The other young men follow along behind, singing and collecting donations from the spectators, which is then turned over to the burgermeister to provide Christmas for the poor.

St. Nicholas also comes on Christmas Eve and questions each child as to their bad habits and then pours a shower of candy on the floor. Their wooden shoes are filled the next day with gifts for the deserving children. Visiting on Christmas day is also a heritage handed down from the Dutch who skate to neighboring villages for visits.

In the Scandinavian countries Nisse is fed. Nisse is a little man who lives in the attics of city houses and the barns where there are cattle. A bowl of food is first provided for Nisse before the Christmas dinner can be enjoyed, and his picture appears on Christmas cards, shop windows and posters.

Children of Scandinavian countries also spend Christmas Eve sleeping on straw as a reminder that Christ was born in a manger. The straw is then fed to the cattle, and is supposed to keep the animals from sickness and accident.

In Austrian homes are three large wax candles made especially for Christmas. One is lighted on Christmas Eve, the second on Christmas Day and the last on New Year's Day.

The practice of bringing in the Yule log is still done in some parts of England. The log is lighted from a brand from the last year's log. This is supposed to serve as a protection against fire during the succeeding year.

In Switzerland Father Christmas appears in the company of his wife, Ludy, who gives gifts to the girls while Father Christmas distributes gifts to the boys.

On Christmas Eve, residents in Melbourne, Australia gather each carrying lighted candles, to sing the season's favorite carols. In recent years over 300,000 have been on hand. The "Carols by Candlelight" program has been tied in with contributions for the sick and disabled youngsters, so that those who cannot attend are included in the festivities.

So, whatever the custom, it all adds up to an observance of the birth of a baby nearly two thousand years ago, and the winter days are brightened with red and green lights, carol singing and people wishing each other a "MERRY CHRISTMAS".

1675 WINCHESTER BLVD.

Christmas art show held at Hamilton school

"We wish you a Merry Christmas", are the words of a popular song being sung this time of year, and the students of the Hamilton Elementary School did just that when they presented their third annual Christmas Art Show on Tuesday, Dec. 16.

Throngs of parents and children packed the school cafeteria to view the art work of each student which was displayed in various forms, with a wide range of variety and technique being shown as well as vivid imaginations. The displays ranged from tree decorations to mobiles, posters, cutouts and "bottle art".

During the evening pictures of the students working on the art projects in their individual rooms were shown on a screen. A cake and pastry sale was also held during the evening and a festive air sent the participants home "full of Christmas good cheer".

Golden wedding anniversary

DWIGHT SHEFFER
1969

MR. AND MRS. DWIGHT SHEFFER - 1919

MRS. FLORENCE SHEFFER

Fifty years ago, on Dec. 13, 1919, vows were exchanged in the Methodist Church in San Jose. On Sunday, Dec. 14, 1969, over 200 friends gathered in the Orchard City Grange Hall to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sheffer on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

During the intervening years the two have been active in the valley granges, have worked for Libby's Canning Co., run a chicken ranch in Sunnyvale, and later worked a prune and walnut orchard on Prospect. They have also raised two children, Dwight, Jr., now living in Sunnyvale and Mrs. Jessie Lund of the Campbell area.

The lovely reception was hosted by the Committee of Women's Activities of the Orchard City Grange and was centered about the lovely four-tiered wedding anniversary cake on the attractive buffet table. The hall was beautifully decorated with gold chrysanthemums and carnations, and the anniversary couple were presented with four lovely money trees as well as many individual gifts.

For the occasion Mrs. Sheffer chose a two piece beige brocade dress with gold lines accented with a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sheffer is presently serving as California State District Chairman of the C.W.A. of Santa Clara County and Sheffer is a past master of both Sunnyvale and Cupertino Granges and is now overseer of the Orchard City Grange.

Present to extend best wishes were many grangers from the surrounding communities as well as State Grange Master and Mrs. Chester Deaver and Mr. and Mrs. James True. Mrs. True is the State Chairman of all the C.W.A. groups. Congratulations were also received from President Richard Nixon.

Following the Grange Hall reception a family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Lund. Present for both occasions were the two children as well as eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffer are presently making their home at 711 Elen Dr., in Campbell.

Now at home in Campbell

The Highlands Inn Chapel in Carmel was chosen by Cathy Eileen Hughes and Gregory Kent Bishop for their wedding date on Dec. 13.

For her wedding gown Cathy chose white brocade satin with pink satin trim around the neck and empire waist. A star shaped headpiece held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and roses.

The former Miss Hughes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hughes of Emory Ave. A 1968 Campbell High School graduate, she is employed at the Campbell Plumbing Co.

Miss Susan Barnes was the only bridal attendant and chose a pink satin and chiffon dress. The pink and white bridal theme was carried out in her bouquet of white and pink daisies.

The radiant bride was given in marriage by her father. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hughes chose a pink knit dress with rhinestone buttons with an orchid corsage complimenting her attire.

Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bishop of 161 N. Milton Ave. A 1966 Campbell High School graduate, he is employed by Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel. Standing with his brother as best man was Gary Lee Bishop.

For the important occasion Mrs. Bishop wore a turquoise knit suit set off by an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are now making their home in Campbell.

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY BISHOP

Mrs. Morgan honored by work in Republican party

Mrs. Wyland R. Morgan has been honored by the California State Republican Federated Woman's Club as being one of the two outstanding women in Santa Clara County in contributing services to the Republican party.

Mrs. Morgan was one of five chosen for the honor in the state of California, and her many years of contribution of the Republican Party are equally matched by her years of service to other civic organizations.

An active member of the Parent Teacher Association for many years, she is also past president of the Campbell High School PTA and holds an honorary life membership. Her years of activity also include working closely with the California Federated Womens Clubs and she is past president of the Loma Prieta District, and of the Campbell Country Woman's Club.

Her interest in youth led her to work for many youth conservation organizations and for many years she served as chairman of the Campbell Youth Guidance Commission working with the Campbell police department in trying to save many young lives from becoming wasted in terms of social behavior. For this she has been recognized by the Campbell City Council who honored her with a "Resolution of Thanks". She also received a special appreciation award from the Congregational Church, having been instrumental in the building plans of the new church on 400 W. Campbell Ave., as well as personally doing much of the landscaping for the church.

In her work for the Republican party she has been working in the precinct for over 30 years. Mrs. Morgan is the past president of the Los Gatos Republican Assembly; one of the organizers of the Los Gatos Federated Republican Club, co-chairman in Santa Clara County on the George Murphy campaign and other work to numerous to mention. She also served as co-chairman for the 1960 President's Washington Confrence on Youth for the county.

Mrs. Morgan was presented with the certificate of her latest honor at the state convention of the Republican Federated Women's Club.

Dancing was enjoyed followed by a buffet supper at midnight. Wren is the Public Works Director for the City of Campbell.

Wide-eyed in Washington

By Mason Sacks

IS FAIR COMMENT ALWAYS
By Mason Sacks

The "New York Times vs. Sullivan" decision handed down by the Supreme Court in 1964 has made it extremely difficult for a public official to successfully claim he has been libeled. False and defamatory statements about a public figure, the Court held, are privileged unless uttered "maliciously," that is, with knowledge of their falsity or in reckless disregard of their truth or falsity.

"What this means," I was told by a Professor at the National Law Center of George Washington University, "is that if you enter public life, you have to be ready to have all of the garbage in the world thrown at you and, with very few exceptions, there will be nothing you can do legally to stop the abuse."

"I believe that the New York Times decision was a good one," related a Washington news correspondent who represented a large Ohio newspaper. "If we want to have full and free political debate, newspapers cannot be in a state of constant fear of being sued for half-a-million dollars."

I was told essentially the same thing in speaking with another correspondent, this one representing a Rhode Island newspaper. "The public deserves to know what is going on; it is the responsibility of the press and other forms of news media to see that this is accomplished. Therefore, the press must be kept as free as possible...I believe that we are responsible enough to regulate ourselves."

"A good newspaper," commented an editor of a Washington-based publication, "will print an apology or retraction if a potentially libelous story is wrongly printed. We've never had any problems with libel because of this. Every paper, it's true, contains hundreds of what I call 'nickel and dime' errors in every edition. Fortunately, libel suits accompany huge errors and gross distortions, not tiny mistakes."

What do government officials say about libel laws?

In speaking with an Administrative Assistant for a Congressman from Indiana, I learned that their office was not overly concerned about the whole issue. "We have problems with the press just like anyone else," said the A.A. "But libel never really has entered our minds. I may get on the phone and bawl out a clumsy reporter or respectfully demand a retraction from an editor, but that is as far as it goes.

"We've never been hurt enough to want to take the whole thing to court; doing that would probably add to the problem, anyway. Besides the original article, there would then be a newspaper coverage of the trial. If someone missed the attack the first time around, the trial would give them a second chance."

Another Congressional staff member was not so tolerant of the Supreme Court ruling. "Political criticism on ideological grounds is O.K." said the press secretary of a Mississippi Congressman, "but when they start getting personal, it's not O.K... The way the public libel law is now, newspapers can get away with nearly anything. If you can get around the Supreme Court, somehow, the law should definitely be changed."

"Abuse from the press is an occupational hazard," said an aide to a Western Senator on a concluding note. "You have to accept libel laws the way they are and just try to grow a thick skin. If I had to choose between a free press and getting hurt once in a while, I'd just as soon get hurt a little. On the whole, newspapers do a darn good job."

Final services held for Mrs. Hughanna Cross

Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Hughanna Leigh Cross, 77, the daughter of Hugh Alexander Leigh for whom Leigh Ave. was named.

Mrs. Cross had been ill for several weeks before she passed away. An active civic and charitable association member, Mrs. Cross had maintained a keen interest in West Valley social and historical affairs until just recently. She was a member of the board of the San Jose Day Nursery and during World War II she served with the American Women's Volunteer Services.

She always participated in the Old Settler's Day programs held in Campbell when she was in the area and her home was a historical storehouse of antiques and mementoes of the family history and of her many travels.

Her father arrived in the Campbell area in 1874 from England, and bought 180 acres from John David Guerraz. Her mother was the former Agnes McBain, who married Leigh in 1881.

Mrs. Cross is survived by a brother, George, of San Jose, a nephew, John Strangman, and two nieces.

Final services were held from the Oak Hill Mortuary Chapel of Roses with the Rev. William Murdock of Trinity Episcopal Church officiating. Burial was in the Oak Hill Memorial Park.

The seating capacity of San Francisco cable cars ranges from 30 to 34 passengers.

Christmas seal campaign starts on home stretch

The Christmas Seals campaign of the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of Santa Clara-San Benito Counties is at 83 per cent of its $160,000 goal with but a few days remaining.

Furthermore, it is one percentage point ahead of its Orange County association challenger, as the campaign goes down into the home stretch, according to Lawrence G. Blunt, association president here.

At last count, a total of $134,349 had been collected by the local association, considerably ahead of last year's $111,463 on the same date. However, Christmas Seals officials here are quick to point out, the campaign started six days earlier this year than it did last, which may account for some faster returns.

Final reminders are still going out in the mails to those who have contributed in the past, but have not yet sent in a check in return for the gaily-colored seals.

Blunt also reminded those who have contributed to be sure to use the Seals on all mail they are now sending, to remind others who may not yet have contributed to do so.

Contributions can still be sent to Christmas Seals, 1144 N. Fourth St., San Jose, Ca. 95112. Phone number is 295-3533. Funds are used to contribute research to combat tuberculosis and such respiratory disease as emphysema, chronic bronchitis and asthma.
